

Affordable Housing in the Glades

Affordable Housing in the Glades Forum: Building a resilient post COVID-19 Community

Join us on October 29, 2020, at 2:00 pm ET for an insightful virtual conversation on the current affordable housing crisis and local government response measures.

Palm Beach County Commissioner Melissa McKinlay and expert panelists will share their views on the pandemic's effect on affordable housing in the Glades and present information on how the local government responds through different programs and resources to increase access to affordable housing opportunities. Additionally, an update on housing projects that are currently in the pipeline will also be provided.
