

Our "Grow Our Own Teacher" initiatives are blossoming! The Nova Southeastern University Abraham S. Fischler College of Education & School of Criminal Justice has partnered with the School District of Palm Beach County to offer an incredible opportunity for non-instructional staff with an interest in pursuing a traditional bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and ultimately a teaching position with our district.

Please share this information and flier with your non-instructional staff:

Information sessions where the following will be discussed:

- Scholarship opportunities
- Flexible course options for working professionals
- Accelerated graduation programs

These information sessions will be offered in-person and online during the following dates:

November 16th 4:30 pm-5:30 pm (Click this Virtual Link: Session Link)

December 12th 5:00 pm-6:00 pm (FHESC Boardroom- 3300 Forest Hill Blvd., West Palm Beach.) FL)

January 18th 4:30 pm-5:30 pm (Click this Virtual Link: Session Link)

February 13th 5:00 pm-6:00 pm (FHESC Boardroom- 3300 Forest Hill Blvd., West Palm Beach.)

For more information, please contact:

Nova Southeastern University

Luke Williams, Program Director

Phone: 954-529-0979

Email: LW715@nova.edu

School District of Palm Beach County

Nikki Jones, HR Partner and Grow Our Own Teachers Coordinator

Phone: 561-649-6809

Email: Nikki.Jones@palmbeachschools.org

****Stay tuned, we are also exploring a non-traditional pathway that may offer a job-embedded bachelor's degree in Elementary Education or Exceptional Student Education****