Norton Museum of Art goes free to celebrate its 75th birthday!

To celebrate its opening 75 years ago, the Norton Museum of Art is doing a little time travel – back to the 1940s to reminisce about the exciting art, music, dance and events occurring during that decade. In celebration, the Museum is free to the public all day Thursday, Feb. 11, 10 a.m. - 9 p.m., including a special Art After Dark – Where Culture and Entertainment Meet! – filled with entertainment and activities designed to take you back to the 1940s. The evening includes swing dance, jazz music, art, dance lessons and more! Click here for more information. The Norton continues its 75th anniversary celebration with another day of free admission and programming in conjunction with Chinese New Year – the Year of the Monkey. Festivities begin on Saturday, Feb. 13, noon to 8 p.m. The Museum, however, is free to the public all day from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Festivities this year include a colorful dragon dance and firework finale presented by the Lee Koon Hung Kung Fu Chinese Martial Arts Association, pipa (Chinese lute) concerts and several art activities.
