

ART CALUSA FINE ART EXHIBIT GRAND OPENING

On January 28th, 2016 at 6:30 P.M.

The Lawrence E. Will Museum of the Glades invites you to join us for the Grand Opening of the fine art exhibit entitled:

ARTCALUSA: Reflections on Representation

ARTCALUSA is a group exhibition featuring Florida's leading historical artists working today, each of whom produces works of art based on scholarly research findings and experimental approaches in archaeology and history. ARTCALUSA visually interprets the life and experiences of Florida's indigenous peoples, particularly the Calusa Indians through their contact with early European explorers. The exhibition also details through artwork and text the dramatic changes in Florida's environment since people first moved to Florida over 12,000 years ago. Paintings, works on paper, and etched glass by eight artists will be exhibited from January 28th to May 22nd. Exhibiting artists include Lucas Century, Merald Clark, Charles Dauray, David Meo, Theodore Morris, Dean Quigley, Hermann Trappman, and Jackson Walker. The exhibition is co-curated by Theresa Schober and Barbara Anderson Hill and organized by Lee Trust for Historic Preservation. The exhibition is locally sponsored by the Glades Historical Society.
