

PALM BEACH STATE COLLEGE

Poetry Reading By poet: Stephen Gibson

Wednesday, April
25th, 2018
10:30 – 11:45 a.m.

BELLE GLADE CAMPUS

Room CRB127

Reading will be teleconferenced to Loxahatchee campus in room LGA131

For more information, contact Ms.
Cortez:

561-993-1028

corteza@palmbeachstate.edu

PalmBeachState.edu

Stephen Gibson, an award-winning poet and retired Palm Beach State College English professor, will return to campus for a poetry reading. Gibson taught at PBSC's Belle Glade campus for 32 years before his retirement in 2015. He has won numerous awards for his work, including the 2017 Miller Williams Poetry Prize for his book "Self-Portrait in a Door-Length Mirror" and the Donald Justice Poetry Prize in 2014. Gibson's poetry collections include "The Garden of Earthly Delights of Ghazals," "Rorschach Art Too," "Paradise," "Frescoes," "Masaccio's Expulsion" and "Rorschach Art."

Snacks will be provided.