New Resources Available for Renters and Landlords

If you're a renter having trouble paying your rent, utilities, or other housing costs, or if you're a landlord trying to stay afloat with tenants in this situation, help may be available.

State and local programs are distributing billions of dollars in rental assistance to help renters stay housed during the pandemic.

Visit the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's \(CFPB\) Rental Assistance Finder to find out what this means for you and what assistance may be available. The CFPB's site also includes information to help renters and landlords understand other resources designed to help you navigate various financial pandemic-related hardships.

It's a fact: people don't mind scrolling to read an email, as long as it's relevant and interesting. Make sure your message follows through on the promise in your subject line, and use several short paragraphs if you have a lot to say. When in doubt, challenge yourself to write less and add links that support your topic.
