

Only 4 more weeks left before the deadline to apply for the 2018 Partners in Policymaking Program.

Do NOT miss this opportunity to become the advocate you were always meant to be!

The Florida DD Council fully sponsors the Florida Partners in Policymaking program, which is a leadership and advocacy training program for parents of children with developmental disabilities and self-advocates.

The application is only open until July 1, 2018.

Classes begin in September and run through February (1 session a month – all travel, hotel/accommodations, and child care reimbursement covered by the DD Council).

The class is taught by state-of-the-art presenters from all over the country!

AMAZING program! Apply today! Application attached, and you can also see it at:
