

1HTC Consortium Summit

Held at the Broward College Bailey Hall

January 24-25, 2017

This summit will bring together Florida's SE Region (Martin, Palm Beach, Broward, Miami Dade, and Monroe counties), Anti Human Trafficking Coalitions, and the communities to coordinate, collaborate, and cooperate in the fight against Human Trafficking.

Registration will be open on the 1HTC website
October 1, 2016. Space will be limited. REGISTER EARLY so as to participate in a chosen track.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Polaris Project (NHTRC), the largest non-governmental organization in the United States operates anti-human trafficking programs on a local and national levels through their offices in Washington DC, including the National Human Trafficking Resource Center hotline.
- United States Health and Human Services (Washington, DC)
- United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS Vermont)
- Terry Coonan, Florida State University Center for Advancement of Human Rights

Free Continuing Education Credits:

- Medical Professionals – CME will be offered through Nova University – Coalition for Research and Education against Trafficking and Exploitation (CREATE)
- Legal Professionals – CLE will be offered through Florida State University, Terry Coonan of the Center for the Advancement of Human Rights will lead the workshop
- Social Workers / Educators -CEU will be offered through Barry University

Lunch will be provided!