

For immediate release:

6/7/2021

For more information:

Emily Marois, 561-233-1759

Join Palm Beach County Master Gardener Volunteers as we celebrate National Pollinator Week - June 21 - 28

Gardening Talks (Free)

The first 50 Palm Beach County residents who register and attend this event will be mailed a packet of Florida Native wildflower seeds.

Tuesday, June 22nd

6:30 pm: The Big Picture of Pollinators - CJ McCartney, Master Gardener Volunteer

7:15 pm: Wildflowers for your Home Garden- Emily Marois, PBC Urban Horticulture Agent

Wednesday, June 23

6:30 pm: Top 15 Butterflies - Teri Jabour, Master Gardener Volunteer

7:15 pm: Bring on the Good Bugs - Kate Rotindo, St. Lucie County Urban Horticulture Agent

To register for our gardening talks, please visit this Eventbrite page: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/154877890941>

Garden Tour (Free)

Thursday, June 24 and Saturday, June 26

9:00 am - 9:45 am: Stroll along at the Mounts Botanical Butterfly Garden with a Master Gardener Volunteer. Learn how you can attract pollinators into your own yard. The entrance fee is waived. Limit of 10 people per tour.

To register for one of our garden tours, please visit this Eventbrite page: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/157114540821>

Contact: Candace Smith at Csmith5@pbcgov.org