

Civil Justice for Crime Victims

Presented by CILO's Crime Victim Service Program and
Michael Dolce, Civil Trial Attorney of Cohen & Milstein

November 9, 2018

2pm - 4pm

CILO's Office

2751 S. Dixie Hwy

West Palm Beach, FL 33405

This presentation is geared towards law enforcement, victim advocates, civil attorneys, and others that work with crime victims. Attendees will learn the difference between the criminal and civil court process, various techniques used for successful case outcomes, and mistakes that could leave their agency vulnerable to civil litigation. Special attention will be given to crime victims that have acquired physical or mental disabilities due to crime victimization or those individuals that were exploited due to the vulnerability of having a disability. You will also receive valuable information on available resources & service referrals in our community.

Effectively Advocate for Your Clients' Rights!

To Register, please go to:

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SKJVYBG>

For more information, contact Brandy Macaluso bmac@cilo.org or (561) 966-4288 ext 118.