Theatre Arts Productions a nonprofit theatre company based in Wellington is presenting the musical "School of Rock" at Wellington Community High School for three performances August 5th (1:00 & 7:00 PM) and August 6th (4:00 PM) at Wellington Community High School. Tickets are FREE but donations are encouraged. All seats are reserved and available through the box office 561-340-9623.

This will be TAP'S seventh main stage musical production in Wellington following; The Lion King, James and the Giant Peach, Shrek, Newsies, the Addams Family and Matilda. TAP also produces a children's series and TAPShorts an evening of ten minute short plays featuring local actors, writers and directors.

School of Rock is a rock musical based on the 2003 film adapted to the theatre by Andrew Lloyd Webber (music), lyrics by Glenn Slater and a book by Julian Fellowes. Dewey Finn (Jaycie Cohen) is a down on his luck rock musician who impersonates his friend Ned (Kole Rosin) as a substitute teacher at a prestigious prep school. Ill suited to actually teaching, Dewey hatches a plan to harness his students talent by forming a rock band to compete in an upcoming Battle of the Bands contest. Along the way he dodges Principal Rosalie Mullins (Dolly Romano), teachers and parents as the band comes together and the students gain confidence in themselves.

You don't want to miss this family oriented production with great music, singing and acting with a message of inclusion, passion and trust.

The production features a cast of twenty eight actors.

Direction and choreography by Jaycie Cohen with musical direction by Dolly Romano.

Donations can be made through the box office (561) 340-9623 or through their website Tapstars.org. Please follow us on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/TheatreArtsProductions?mibextid=LQQJ4d>

The production is not affiliated with the School District of Palm County or Wellington Community High School.
