

Having trouble viewing this email? Click here

Lead the Fight: Giving Children with Trauma a Voice

There is no cost for this live, virtual event.

Date: February 22, 2022

Time: 6:00pm - 7:30pm

Purchase the book:

Join us on February 22nd for a virtual, international book reading and conversation about Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) and the power of positive relationships.

Featuring Juleus Ghunta, Children's Author

Lead the Fight 2022: Giving Children with Trauma a Voice

Juleus Ghunta is an author and advocate in the Caribbean's ACEs movement. His new children's book Rohan Bullkin and the Shadows: A Story About ACEs and Hope was published in December.

A Special thank you to our sponsors:

FIRST REPUBLIC BANK
It's a privilege to serve youSM

Children's Services Council
PALM BEACH COUNTY
Healthy. Safe. Strong.

Become a Partner:

Be recognized for your role: Click Here for Sponsorship Opportunities.

Learn About ACEs:

Check out our online ACEs Toolkit.

Forward to a Friend

The first 100 people in the United States to register will be mailed a copy of the book!

Keynote Speaker, Benjamin Perks

Benjamin Perks is the Head of Campaigns and Advocacy in the Division of Global Communications and Advocacy at the United Nations Children's Fund, based in New York. He is recognized as a public speaker, blogger and influencer on violence against children and adverse childhood experiences. Click here for his TedX talk on ACEs.

Event Emcee, Ashley Glass

Ashley Glass, a highly regarded journalist with almost two decades of experience as an anchor and reporter, is the weekday co-anchor of CBS12 News This Morning 4:30-7 am, and CBS12 News at 9 am and noon. Ashley has covered many significant news events and presents regular special reports on the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, focusing on children's mental health and other timely issues.

Get more information

Register Now!

I can't make it

We hope you can join us for this important conversation!

Sincerely,

Renée E. Layman, LMHC
President & Chief Executive Officer
Center for Child Counseling, Inc.