

The South Florida Human Trafficking Task Force Meeting Announcement

The South Florida Human Trafficking Task Force (SFHTTF) has scheduled its last meeting for 2016 on November 18, 2016, by joining Rescue Upstream, the anti-trafficking initiative at Journey Church and their hosting of an all-day conference on November 18th.

The meeting will be held at the Journey Church Lake Worth in the Hub at the Lake Worth campus. The name of the event is Restore 2016. This will be their third year and are expanding the event this year from just an evening event to a full-day conference. This is a collaborative event and has the full support of the Human Trafficking Coalition Palm Beach (HTCPB) and many community partners, including Hepzibah House, Hope for Freedom and Life of Freedom Center.

The point of contacts are Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) for the task force Steve Houk, james.s.houk@ice.dhs.gov (305) 597-6107, Special Agent (SA) Vic Williams, victor.b.williams@ice.dhs.gov (305) 726-7552) or Tanya Meade tanya@rescueupstream.com (561) 601-5576.

The address and time for the meeting is listed below:

DATE: November 18, 2016

Breakfast 9:00AM

Meeting: 10:00AM

LOCATION: Journey Church Lake Worth, 6201 S. Military Trail, Lake Worth, FL 33463

Please RSVP to Vic and Tanya for proper preparations.